

Lions aid Habitat

Ross Butler, president of the Lions Club, presents Habitat for Humanity spokesman Valerie Kines with a cheque for $2,500. This together with other donations large and small signifies the group's ability to finish the house ready for occupancy by September for the Blair family.