

EMC photo by ASHLEY KULP

The newest family to receive a home from the Thousand Islands Habitat for Humanity organization was announced during a fundraising auction at the Portland United Church on Aug. 2. Above, top to bottom: Rose Whelpdale and her children Stephen, Toni and Cody (stepson Dylan was absent) will move into the Habitat for Humanity home once it is built in Newboro.